

T&Cs

Fons services and events

Cancellation

You have until 24 hours before your appointment to cancel free of charge and we provide a full refund. If less than 24 hours 50% of the appointment fee will be refunded. No-show is charged fully so no funds will be refunded and a new appointment charge will be required to book in again. We are a small company with limited resources.

Tastings

Tasting costs will vary due to the nature of varying price of wine and depending on your guidance of budget. We have the right to ask for ID to prove legal drinking age.

Delivery of wine

You will provide us with the delivery address and we will communicate this to the third party who will deliver the wine to your selected venue. We will not be liable for any mis-delivery as it is conducted by a third party and it is your responsibility to appoint a contact to receive the goods. We will not take any responsibility for storage of wine after delivery and before consumption of your event.

Consumption of wine

We are not responsible for any service of wine. We can provide at event support as an additional cost, although this would be on a consultant agreement and dependent on appropriate licenses in place. We are not providing a retail or hospitality sale of wine, we are a service providing consulting advice connecting you with wine. Therefore it is your responsibility to ensure you are in accordance with legislation with regards to alcohol consumption, premiss and personal license.